

COLUMBIANA COUNTY JUNIOR FAIR LIVESTOCK SALES

Open to Junior Fair Exhibitors of market cattle, market & carcass hogs, market & carcass lambs, market rabbits, market poultry, market goats and dairy (cheese sale) in the current fair. Exhibitors may sell a maximum of two animals, excluding carcass lamb & carcass hog. (A market pen of rabbits or a market pen of chickens will be considered the same as one animal.)

THE LIVESTOCK SALE WILL BE CONDUCTED BY THE COLUMBIANA COUNTY JUNIOR FAIR LIVESTOCK SALE COMMITTEE.

Rules of Procedure

NAME: The governing body of the Junior Fair Livestock Sale will be: COLUMBIANA COUNTY JUNIOR FAIR – LIVESTOCK SALE COMMITTEE

FUNCTION: To organize, promote and conduct all aspects of the sale of Columbiana County Junior Fair market livestock.

RESPONSIBILITY: The Committee is directly responsible to the Columbiana County Agricultural Society, reporting major concerns and recommendations to the Society.

STANDING SUB-COMMITTEES: Standing sub-committee exhibitors have full sale privileges. The standing sub-committees will consist of the following:

1. DAIRY BEEF FEEDERS, STEER, SWINE, LAMB, GOAT, DAIRY, RABBIT AND POULTRY and will have three (3) persons representing their consignors: Two (2) appointed committee members & one (1) Jr. Fairboard supt.
2. Three (3) Sr. Fairboard Advisory Committee members
3. One (1) Jr. Fairboard Coordinator

I. An annual meeting will be held approximately 60 days following the close of the fair. The time and location of the meeting will be decided by the Committee Chairman and the Treasurer. Committee will be notified of the details of the meeting prior to the scheduled date.

II. Regular meetings of the committee will be called as is warranted by business before the committee.

Agenda of Annual Meeting

1. Presentation of reports concerning the current sale.
2. General topics of discussion relating to sale operation and business.
3. Motion from the floor and voting on the proposals.
4. Dispersal of gathering to sub-committee groups.
5. Appointment of new committee members from sub-committee groups.
6. Adjournment.

- a. Regular Meeting – Meetings will be called by the Chairman as necessary. A quorum of 13 members is required to conduct business. Proposals may be passed by a simple majority of the members present. The members will be notified of time and location of the meeting in writing.
- b. It is each committee's responsibility to have representation at all meetings. Decisions will be made regardless of a committee's absence.
- c. Any modifications of operating procedures or rules for each of the sales sub-committees must be reported to, and approved by, the majority of the sale committee before that operation procedure or rule will take effect.

Amendments to the Rules of Procedure

These rules may be amended as follows:

1. The amendment will be presented at one meeting.
2. The following meeting a 2/3 majority vote of the members present is necessary for passage. The quorum of 13 members present still applies. In the event an amendment is proposed, all committee members will be notified in writing of the proposal on the next meeting's agenda. Details of the proposal will be included in the notification.

General Rules

1. Membership to the sale committee is appointed by each specie committee and the youth position through the Jr. Fairboard.

The sale committee treasurer is not required to be a member of the sale committee. A treasurer may be appointed by the chairman with a 2/3 majority of the committee's approval. If the treasurer is not a sale committee member, this appointment shall be made by the first meeting of the newly organized sale committee, with approval no later than the second meeting.
2. The length of term is two (2) years. One-half (1/2) of the members of a sub-committee will be appointed each year. Incomplete terms will be vacant until the appointment of members at the next annual meeting.
3. Officers and Duties of the Columbiana County Junior Fair Livestock Sale Committee are:
 - A. Chairman will conduct all committee meetings, act as the spokesperson for the committee, act as the official liaison to the Columbiana County Agricultural Society and to the Columbiana County Extension Office, and sign all expense and consignor's payment checks.
 - B. Vice Chairman will assume the duties of the chairman whenever it is necessary.
 - C. Treasurer will transact all financial business of the committee and co-sign all checks.
 - D. Assistant Treasurer will assist the treasurer with all financial business of the committee.
 - E. Secretary will take notes of all meetings.

- F. News Reporter will issue all releases to the local news media to keep the public informed of all facets of committee activity.
4. All amendments to this set of Rules of Procedures must be presented to all Senior Fairboard members and Junior Fairboard members for final approval.
 5. The livestock sale will be conducted by the Columbiana County Junior Fair Livestock Sale Committee.
 6. All Grand and Reserve Champion Steers, Market Hogs, Market Lambs, Market Goats, Meat Pens of Rabbits and Meat Pen of Chickens must go to harvest. Sr. Fairboard will determine whether the Columbiana County Jr. Fair Livestock Sale will be terminal or partial-terminal approximately 30 days prior to the fair.
 7. The exhibitor will stand the loss in the case of a condemned carcass due to drug residue or a positive drug test.
 8. In order to sell, all animals must have been shown in a Junior Fair livestock class unless granted special permission by the Junior Fairboard.
 9. The Columbiana County Fair holds two livestock sales each year. Buyers at each sale who make a purchase are entitled to two (2) admission tickets along with a Gate A parking pass for each of the next two (2) years' fairs. The tickets and passes provided by the Senior Fairboard will be mailed out by the sale committee to each buyer from the previous two (2) years.
 10. The Sale Committee may also invest the proceeds from the sales in interest bearing accounts until that time that sale consignors are paid. Such interest will be used to defray part of the sale expenses.

Sale Commissions

1. A small percentage will be deducted from the sale price of market animals to cover costs of the sale and species committee expenses as follows:
