Rules - All species will conform to all Uniform Junior Fair Rules found on pages 6-9 of this handbook. Please read these rules.

1. All entries in the Jr. Fair shall be made through the Ohio State University Extension, Columbiana County Office, on the official entry blank.
2. Only animals entered by July 1 deadline may be shown. There will be no substitution of animals after entry deadline. Club herds may be formed and entered at the Fair by announced show time.
3. Any youth exhibiting in Jr. Fair who wants to show their exhibit in the Open Class may do so by making entry on the appropriate forms. Anyone interested should check a Sr. Fair Premium Book or call the Sr. Fair office, 330-424-5531.
4. Each breed will be shown separately.
5. 4-H/Jr. Fair Dairy Committee will assign stall space. No feed, hay, or straw will be furnished.
6. Only one (1) premium will be paid per exhibitor.
7. An exhibitor is limited to one (1) entry in each class.
8. It is the junior dairy exhibitor's responsibility to groom their own project animal at the fair. Use of professional grooms person is prohibited. Violation of this will result in forfeiture of premiums and disqualification from the Jr. Dairy Show.
9. Each exhibitor must show their own animals in the show ring, unless they are unable to do so because of sickness or due to showing two species at the same time. In these cases the exhibitor may procure another Jr. Fair exhibitor to show for them. Exhibitors must show own animal in showmanship.
10. Registered or Grade animals are eligible to show in classes.
11. ALL 4-H/Jr. Fair Dairy exhibitors MUST attend at least two Jr. Fair Clinics scheduled by the Jr. Fair Dairy Committee or one Judging Contest and one Jr. Fair Clinic.
12. All 4-H/Jr. Fair exhibitors showing dairy projects - this includes both heifer and cow projects - MUST attend a Quality Assurance clinic.
13. The dairy committee suggests that 9 and 10 year olds take Project 122, Dairy Heifers before taking Project 126 Dairy Production.
14. Any Jr. Fair member taking a dairy animal other than that owned by immediate family MUST have a lease agreement which must be turned in with registration—Cheese Cow registration and Lease Agreement due March 15, other dairy registrations and lease agreement turned in July 1. Log of work must be turned in at same time Cheese Test Papers are due, July 20, 2011. Log must have a minimum of 20 hours of work, signed by both Jr. Fair member and Lessor (animal owner.)

CHEESE COW RULES

1. Any Jr. Fair exhibitor who exhibits and shows a dairy cow at the Fair is eligible to sell cheese. The animal must be pre-registered with OSUE, Columbiana County Office by March 15 of the current year. This animal must also be listed on the Jr. Fair Dairy entry due July 1. The sale will follow the Steer/Dairy Beef Feeder/Beef Feeder Sale on Thursday evening.
2. One animal per person may be entered.
3. Cheese cows MUST be shown at the Jr. Fair. Jersey & Brown Swiss must be tattooed or have a permanent form of identification. Holstein, Ayrshire and Guernsey must be sketched or drawn. Animals may be Grade or Registered.
4. Minerva Dairy furnishes the cheese and calculates the cheese production.

MANDATORY - Cows not on official test are to be tested 3 times before the fair by an official tester. The tester must be present to take sample and weigh milk. Tests are to be done in 3 consecutive months between January and June of 2011. Testing is the owner's responsibility. First calf heifers must have at least 3 official tests. Owner – sampler cow sheets must show 3 months records. If not on official test, a dairy committee member will contact you. NO EXCEPTIONS.

5. The 4-H/Jr. Fair Dairy Committee directs the Cheese Sale, but Minerva Dairy makes all final decisions.

6. Cheese is sold by the block, not by the pound.

7. In case of death or illness of the animal, no substitutions can be made.

DAIRY GREEN CLOVER AWARD

This award is given to a junior member who shows outstanding sportsmanship, showmanship, cooperation and enthusiasm throughout the year.

DAIRY HERDSMAN AWARD

Any Jr. Fair Dairy exhibitor is eligible for this award. All exhibits identified as Jr. Fair projects will be judged in the following divisions:

JUNIOR DIVISION - 9-12 years of age

INTERMEDIATE DIVISION - 13-15 years of age

SENIOR DIVISION - 16 years of age and older

Each exhibit of dairy cattle representing the project of one member will be judged daily between the hours of 10:30 a.m. and 9:00 p.m. on the following:

Condition of project animal	Condition of stable area
Information provided	Attractive exhibit

Dairy Show Order

Wednesday, August 3, 8 a.m.

Show will begin with Senior Showmanship at 8 a.m. followed by Intermediate and Junior Showmanship and Showman of Showman classes.
