Rules - All species will conform to all Uniform Junior Fair Rules found on pages 6-9 of this handbook. Please read these rules.

1. Only the following Dairy Breeds will be entered under the category, Ayrshire, Brown Swiss, Guernsey, Holstein, Jersey, and Milking Shorthorn. No mixed breeds (dairy/beef cross) will be accepted. Committee decision will be final.
2. Calf must be born after January 1, 2011.
3. Only one (1) animal per exhibitor may be shown and sold at the fair. Two (2) animals may be tagged for one (1) exhibitor. Two (2) or more exhibitors from immediate family may share the same alternate animal.
4. To be on the list for tagging day, you MUST have your enrollment form with this project turned into the Extension Office by March 15, 2011. The completion of the registration will be done on tagging day where your animal is housed. We ask if at all possible that both the Jr. Fair member and a parent be present for signature purposes.
5. Mandatory tagging and fair registration will be Saturday, March 19, 2011. If an animal loses a tag, a committee member or the Extension Office must be notified within 3 days. Any animal that enters the fairground without tags in both ears will be dismissed.
6. Calf/Calves must have testicles and horns removed by June 1, 2011. (surgically or banded). Calves with horns or any sign of regrowth or testicles will not be accepted for participation and will be removed from the fairgrounds, which includes calves with open sores, abscesses or obvious swelling.
7. Calf must weigh between 450 and 650 pounds by weigh-in at the Fair, to be eligible for Grand and Reserve Champion. All other entered animals over/under weight may be entered into the show, but will sell at the end of the sale.

8. Drug Notification forms, Quality Assurance Paper and Health Certificates (for each animal per barn) must be presented to a committee member on entry day of the Fair before getting off of the trailer and be vaccinated according to the current year's OHIO EXHIBITION RULES, for non-terminal cattle. If any of your animals are given drugs during the fair, committee members MUST be notified. We have to be able to update your drug use notification forms.
9. Dairy Beef Feeder animals exhibited at the Jr. Fair must be shown and sold at the fair.
10. Unruly or unmanageable animals may not be exhibited or sold at the fair.
11.  Barn Duty is MANDATORY . A $50 deduction will be taken for any individual who does not work barn duty. NO EXCEPTIONS
12. All exhibitors must secure their animal with a halter AND rope-type neck tie (double tied) in the exhibit area. (NO CHAINS PERMITTED!)
13. A rope-type halter will remain on the animal at the close of the fair for the hauler at the pickup time. Failure to comply with this rule will result on a deduction from your sale earnings. Halters going with animals should be in place by 4 p.m. Sunday.
14. The exhibitor will be responsible for cleaning, bedding, watering, feeding, and grooming their animals by 10 a.m. each day.
15. All animals will be full body slick-shorn with 1/4" hair for the show.
16. No separate pens, stalls, or dividers will be placed or built in exhibit area without the consent of the 4-H/Jr. Fair Dairy Beef Feeder Committee and the committee will determine the amount.
17. To participate in the 2012 DBF Show, calves must be born on or after 01/1/2012.
18. A small percentage will be deducted from the sale price of the dairy beef feeders to cover the expenses. The 4-H/Jr. Fair Dairy Beef Feeder Committee will determine the amount.
19. Only committee members and exhibitors will be allowed in the barn at weigh-in.
20. There will be only one weigh-in weight for each exhibitor's animal. Exception for calves weighing 445 or 655 - an immediate re-weigh will be permitted.
21. Buyer thank you letters must be turned in by 12:00 noon Saturday of the fair or members will not receive their Dairy Beef Feeder sale checks.
22. The committee has the final decision on any discrepancies of any situation.

These are the rules that will be enforced once approved by the Junior and Senior Fairboard.
