Junior Division - 9-12 years old
Intermediate Division - 13-15 years old plus previous years first place winners of all the Jr. Divisions
Senior Division - 16+ years old plus previous years first place winners of all Intermediate Divisions

 Once an exhibitor has been declared a winner in a division, they must compete in the next age division the following year and thereafter regardless of their age. Senior Division winners remain in the Sr. Division.
3. Showman of Showmen - This contest will consist of only the current year's age division winners - Jr., Intermediate and Sr. and Novice if applicable. Previous winners of Showman of Showmen in a specie area will return to the next higher age division. Example - A junior division winner wins Showman of Showmen. The next year, he/she will be placed in the intermediate division and remain in that division until moving up either by age to senior division or by winning intermediate division. A senior division winner may return to the senior division the following year.
4. Super Showmanship - The showmen from all species areas from the current year MUST participate in Super Showmanship. No substitutions will be made. Winners of Showman of Showmen are highly encouraged to seek assistance from Jr. Fairboard members or committee members from other livestock areas to familiarize themselves with the proper showmanship techniques of each species.
5. Species area specific rules or awards will be found on each department's page in this book.
6. These rules have been assembled by a group consisting of representatives from each livestock area, the Jr. Fairboard, OSU Extension Office, and Sr. Fairboard and has been approved by them for implementation uniformly by all species areas.
