Rules - All species will conform to all Uniform Junior Fair Rules found on pages 6-9 of this handbook. Please read these rules.

1. Market project turkeys must be ordered through the Columbiana County Junior Fair Turkey Committee with members receiving any number of poults desired. A $6.00 per bird fee will be collected when poults are ordered. Order deadline is 12/31/10. Pick up will be sometime the end of March, with time and place to be announced.
2. Check-in will be Monday, August 1, 2011, 8 am - 5 pm. No late entries will be accepted. Tagging/banding and weigh-in will be done at check-in.
3. Only one (1) market turkey will be checked in and shown at the fair. A tom (male) is preferred. Hens are permitted.
4. Market turkeys must weigh 20 lbs. at fair check-in. There is no maximum weight. Any turkey not meeting minimum weight requirements at weigh-in will be sent home.
5. All exhibitors MUST sign up and serve barn duty. Exhibitors will not receive their fair premium if they do not do barn duty.
6. Each exhibitor is solely responsible for care and cleanliness of their cages. Animals need to be fed, watered and cleaned twice daily by 6 pm and checked off by a committee member. No premium will be given if cages are not kept clean during and prior to removal from fair.
7. Exhibitors must follow barn rules. (see posted barn rules)
8. Showmanship is mandatory for Market Turkey project.
9. Wet turkeys or turkeys with parasites or lice on check-in day will be sent

10. Parents and exhibitors are responsible for knowing and following the turkey rules.
11. Turkey barn/tent hours will be posted in barn/tent.
12. Pictures for buyer's cards will be taken of Jr. Fair exhibitors prior to show with their Market Turkey.
13. The Market Turkey project is a terminal sale. Turkeys will be sold at live-stock sale on Saturday, August 6, 2011.
14. All Market Turkey exhibitors must be present at the livestock sale or forfeit all money and awards and will be denied showing a market turkey project the following year. Exhibitors may make special arrangements, if unable to be present at the sale, at least 24 hours prior to the sale with the committee.
15. Processing fees will be added to the sale price and paid by the buyer.
16. Due to health regulations when raising Market Turkey, they must be housed separately from any other poultry. They may be in the same building but must be kept from intermingling in the same pen.
17. The committee has the final decision on any discrepancies of any situation.

See Uniform Showmanship rules and classes.
